Portrait Photography Rules

- The use of fireworks, pyrotechnics or special effect devices is strictly prohibited, as they could create a potential fire hazard and be harmful to wildlife. This includes but is not limited to:
 - Confetti Cannons.
 - Fireworks.
 - Handheld Torches.
 - Smoke Bombs/Grenades.
 - Sparklers.
- Be mindful if using balloons and dispose of them properly. If accidentally released or popped, balloons are harmful to wildlife and if caught in power lines, are a potential fire hazard.
- Stay on marked trails for your safety and for the health of park habitat.
- Dogs are not permitted in certain park facilities, please visit the selected park website for rules and regulations.
- Each time a permittee visits a new park facility for a photoshoot, they must contact the park beforehand to be informed of all rules.
- We kindly request that permittees contact the park 48 hours prior to each photoshoot. This will allow us to inform you of anything going on at the park that may impede on the photoshoot.
- During the photoshoot session, please do not block park sidewalks, roads or trails.
- Please be mindful of other park visitors and maintenance work during your photoshoot.
- Overnight storage of vehicles or equipment is not allowed.
- Photography is only allowed during parking hours.
- The permittee shall maintain a clean working area and upon completion of work, all locations are to be cleared of equipment, props and trash.

Photography in the Redwood Grove at Carbon Canyon Regional Park

- To protect this natural resource, photography is allowed in the designated areas only. Designated photography areas are marked with signs.
- Wedding portrait photography is allowed in the designated areas in the Redwood Grove, but wedding ceremonies are not permitted.

Photography at Riley Wilderness Park

- Photography is allowed on authorized park trails and in designated recreational areas only.
- Stay on marked trails for your safety and for the health of park habitat. No person shall enter any off-trail wilderness areas including but not limited to: oak groves, grasslands, creeks, or other unauthorized areas.
- All persons must comply with all local, state, and federal codes, laws, rules, and regulations including but not limited to those governing the Southern Subregion Habitat Conservation Plan.

Portrait photography permit holders must read and abide by these rules. While these rules are the most relevant for portrait photography, a comprehensive list of all park rules and Orange County Codified Ordinances can be found by visiting www.ocparks.com.
